Volunteer Rules

Failure to follow rules can result in termination of volunteer status

- All volunteers must attend a volunteer orientation in order to participate.
 - * Please contact Marc Daly to schedule your orientation.
- Volunteers MUST be 18 years of age or a minor must be accompanied by an adult at ALL times.
- Volunteers are not allowed to enter rooms marked as employees only.
- Volunteers must sign in at the front desk before working. All work assignments will be given and approved by a kennel attendant.
- Do NOT take pictures of the animals unless permission acquired JCAS Staff.

- Prior to working, volunteers should check in with kennel attendant to ask which dogs can be handled.
- Prior to walking, volunteers should check in with kennel attendant to ask which dogs need to be walked.
- If you are having trouble getting a dog into or out of a run, ask for help and use caution to prevent escapes.
- All dogs to be walked with either an appropriate slip lead or training collar. Dogs are NEVER to be walked with a standard strap collar.
- Walk dogs in and out of the building quickly. This causes less stress for this dog and other dogs.
- Please pick up after the dog if they go to the bathroom. Plastic bags will be provided.
- Don't allow the dogs to pull and bite the leash or jump on you. If you need help addressing these behaviors please ask for help.
- Volunteers must use caution when having to walk dogs near other dogs; this is to prevent possible fights. Dogs are not allowed to socialize or play with each other in order to prevent injuries.
- After walks, brushing and basic obedience commands are encouraged.
- Volunteers must be sure the kennel doors are completely closed and latch when returning dogs to their kennel.
- When taking dogs out into the fenced in exercise yard, you MUST make sure the sign is up so no other dogs will be sent out in the yard during your play session.
- If you want to take a dog upstairs for quiet time, check with a kennel attendant first to make sure the room is available.

Jackson County Animal Shelter

Cat Specific Rules

- If you are bitten, please report it to any staff member immediately so proper measures can be taken.
- Prior to working, volunteers should check in with kennel attendant to ask which cats can be handled.
- Volunteers must wash hands or hand sanitizer before AND after handling each cat. This is to minimize the transfer of any infection and/or illness from one cat to another.
- Please check with kennel attendant before letting any cat roam the cat room .
- If allowing a cat to free roam the cat room, please make sure the lobby door is shut.
- Do not allow more than one cat out at a time.
- Volunteers must be sure the doors are completely closed and latch when returning cats to their cages.
- If you are bitten or scratched, please report it to any staff member immediately so proper measures can be taken.

Other

If you see illness or any other concerning from any animal please make sure to let staff know asap.

If you are here to work on tasks other than animal interaction check with a kennel attendant as these tasks procedures change daily.
